

30 YEARS OF POSITIVE IMPACT

COLFUTURO contributes to the development of the country by creating postgraduate education opportunities in the world's best universities to Colombian professionals with academic excellence.

OUR HISTORY

Investment of US$ 13 million for the establishment of COLFUTURO in 1991:
public sector US$ 5 million, private sector US$ 8 million

59 donors
from the main private companies and public entities of Colombia

4 Directors
Martha Ripoll de Urrutia (1991-1992)
Alicia Eugenia Silva (1992-1995)
Isabel Londoño Polo (1995-2001)
Jerónimo Castro Jaramillo (2001 to date)

Over 140 agreements with the best universities around the world

US$ 653.8 million disbursed

COLFUTURO'S DNA

BENEFICIARIES IN THE WORLD

IMPACT ASSESSMENT

47.6 % increase of annual labor income to ours beneficiaries, versus non-beneficiaries

18.78 % social internal rate of return in Colombia from the Scholarship Loan Program.

COP 1.65 is the benefit the country receives for every peso invested in a student through COLFUTURO.

www.colfuturo.org

BENEFICIARIES OF THE SCHOLARSHIP LOAN PROGRAM

Average age between 26 and 30 years old

45 % are female candidates

73 % return to the country

63 % have studied postgraduate programs in Engineering, Business, Social Sciences, Law and Architecture

47 % have studied in the United Kingdom and in the United States

32 % come from public universities

In total, they have studied in 1,300 universities abroad

OUR PROGRAMS

39,412 applications for the Scholarship Loan Program in 30 years

18,450 selected throughout COLFUTURO's history to study abroad

13,069 colombians
have completed postgraduate studies abroad with the support of COLFUTURO

2,607 students received support for the Language Program

We have financed 11,558 masters' degrees and 1,511 PhDs

7,510 professionals have had accompaniment in the Talent Incubator Program

The goal of selecting 1,000 students per year is met

1,000 PhD students received support

The highest number of students is selected, 1,511

The National Government allocates COP$698 billion from 2107 to 2025

The National Government ensures the availability of resources to finance the Scholarship Loan Program until 2022

Record number of candidates 3,599 applications to the Scholarship Loan Program

The number of selected students increased by 165 % vis-à-vis the number of selected student during the previous year

► # of selected students per year

Firsts group of beneficiaries graduated from top universities 832 applications/ 46 selected students

